THE MICHAEL LATT ARTIVIST ACCELERATOR PROGRAM

Art in Action is a 12-week fellowship that blends art and activism to help launch your creative career and impact your community. Participants will receive $1,000 to develop a community-centered art project and learn from renowned artists. Classes will meet on Mondays & Wednesdays from April 21 to July 10 from 6 to 8 pm.

Honoring Michael Latt's work and advocacy, Art in Action aims to enable, inspire, and educate the next generation of artistic and entrepreneurial leaders in Greater South Los Angeles.

PROGRAM DETAILS

- Program Meetings: Program meetings will include lecture-style workshops on topics such as research, budgeting, project management, marketing, and more. Students will walk through developing a creative project from inception to execution. Wednesday meetings will allow students to begin practicing those lessons as they build on their projects.
- Guest Speakers & Masterclasses: Throughout the program, featured artists and creatives of color will lead masterclasses, speaker sessions, and mentorship. These sessions will introduce the students to new art forms, explore entrepreneurial opportunities within those fields, and discuss best practices related to curriculum topics.
